Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4,5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Green et al. (6,656,113) in view of Koros et al. (6,113,534).

With respect to claims 4,5 Green et al disclose an apparatus for stabilizing an epicardial surface of the heart comprising a shaft (3), a foot (762,765) coupled to the shaft, a contact surface for engaging the heart and a slot; as best seen in FIG.52 A-B, in which a vessel on the heart may be positioned, the slot being aligned with a central axis, the foot having a shape which is asymmetrical relative to the central axis, as best seen in FIGS. 52 A-B, 53,54., the second arm is shaped differently compared to the first arm; as bet seen in FIGS.52 A-B, 53, 54.

It is noted that Green et al did not teach of a foot having a generally planar first arm and a generally planar second arm, as claimed by applicant. However, in a similar art, Koros et al evidence the use of a foot having a generally planar first arm and a generally planar second arm to press a heart surface tissue at a surgical site and minimize motion.

Therefore, given the teaching of Koros et al, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of Green et al., as taught by Koros et al, to press the hear surface tissue at a surgical site and minimize motion.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 2, 14,15, 17-19, 49-54 are allowed.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5,8,17-19, 52-54, have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
